In Recognition

Do you want to recognize an important person in your life, living or deceased, and say "thank you" to God for them while at the same time furthering CPUCC's ministry and mission? For each $15 sponsorship, a notice will be placed in that week's bulletin. You can sign up and pay for dates on-line or dates can be reserved and paid for by contacting the church office.

Capital Campaign

Although our Capital Campaign Rejoice, Renew, Revive has officially wrapped up its three-year term, It's never too late to support it! Donations continue to be happily accepted, and are still definitely needed for additional building and organ renovations and repairs. Thank you for your contributions totaling $472,006.97 through the end of January, as well as your contributions to the Building and Organ Funds. Your gifts have made possible many important projects to repair, maintain, and improve our beautiful facility. The current project focus is painting and new flooring, which you may have noticed in your recent visits to church. It looks fabulous! Thanks to everyone who made this possible – all those working on this huge project and all the contributors providing the funding!

IMAGINE TOGETHER

March 2025

At a worship service in February, the Prayer for Others and Ourselves included this:

"Pause to think about interconnectedness, the way we build community, and the people we connect with. And consider those who still live beyond the sphere of our world's interconnectedness."

It's not often I travel to another country, but in January I visited Canada for a ski trip. On the first day, a snow host named Deanne showed us around the mountain. She shared her love of skiing and explained that she volunteers as a snow host to honor her mother, who was also a snow host for many years. It didn't take long to find a connection with each other as we rode the chairlift together and chatted about our families and our lives. Deanne shared that she is now taking care of her mother, who is dying of cancer. I shared about being a caregiver for my parents and the recent loss of my dad. A connection was made between us even though we live 2500 miles apart in two different countries.

Later the same week, on an adventure getting to the town of Rossland in British Columbia, we were helped by a resident who came out of his house just in time to keep us from getting lost. He began walking along with us to show us the way. Once again a connection was made, as he told us about his background, job, and the area. What stood out to me was his kindness. He was not obligated to help three strangers who happened to walk by his house as he was coming out of his door – but he did. And when we parted ways, none of us felt like strangers any longer.

Imagine together a world where conversation, kindness, and a helping hand start to build more connectedness in our communities. We can each practice that every day on our own because, like it or not, we are all interconnected. Your generosity to our church helps build that connectedness, whether it's within our church (think Women's Spirituality or Charging Station) or within the community (think Santa Breakfast or Thrift Shop). These are just a few examples of how CPUCC currently encourages interconnectedness, but if you have more ideas, please let your Church Council or Pastors know. During a time when division and fear are rampant, connecting with others in God's love is a way to overcome that.

Grocery Cards

Did you make a New Year's resolution to use grocery cards when you shop at Giant, Weis or Karns? If you did, how is it going? It's never too late to start or restart with this program. Our friendly grocery card team is available Sunday mornings before and after worship in Fellowship Hall, or you can stop in the office weekdays. In either case, cards are available in denominations ranging from $5.00 to $100.00, and the church makes 5% on every cash or check purchase. Thank you for your ongoing support.

Harrisburg Food Pantry

For the month of March, we are requesting peanut butter, jelly, canned stew, chili, or soup, crackers, and toothpaste for the Harrisburg Area Food Pantry. You may place items in the grocery cart.

Restock the Shelves

The Blessing Box

Please continue to donate items for our Blessing Box. These donations directly benefit our local neighbors. You may place items directly in the Blessing Box anytime or in the Alcove, we have also placed a basket in the Narthex to receive donations.

Giving TREE

THE GIVING TREE

"TAKE ONE, GIVE ONE"

For the winter months, we will be collecting items for

CPUCC Blessing Box & Light of Christ Ministries

Items needed are: hats, beanies, mittens, scarves, socks and hygiene items such as toothbrushes, toothpaste, and soap. We will be sharing these donations between our Blessing Box and Light of Christ Ministries (who serve Keystone Corrections Work Release Program), and other local service organizations.

TAKE a tag from the GIVING TREE, GIVE an item on the tag, and place your purchase on the tree or in the containers under the tree.

THANK YOU!

SOUPER BOWL OF CARING℠

Thank you to everyone that donated cans of soup for our Blessing Box, and donated money for Manna Food Pantry & the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank on the Sunday Souper Bowl of Caring.

News from the Thrift Shoppe

The Thrift Shop is gearing up to open fully as the work in the Activity Room is coming to a close.The Shop was closed for the month of January and has been operating on a limited basis since reopening on February 5th. The weather has not been cooperating so we have had to close a day or two when the roads were icy. We are anxiously awaiting Spring!

There is a new little shed beside the existing shed that houses appliances and pots and pans. And - a new bigger shed is being installed on the other side of the existing shed to house the things that are currently in the garage so the church can again use the garage for storage.

We gave many coats to Gather the Spirit for Justice in Harrisburg to help the homeless combat this cold. Helen received a big hug and a kiss from the lady who came to pick up the coats. She was overwhelmed by the number and quality of coats we donated.

A few new church members agreed to help in the Thrift Shop. Volunteers are always needed and their help is greatly appreciated. One young lady attended our church service when Rhonda gave her mission moment about the Thrift Shop. She decided that she wanted to volunteer at the Shop. She is available on Saturdays which is our biggest need for volunteers since many of our "regulars" are not available on Saturdays. This young lady proved to be a valuable asset.

The men who have been doing the rebuilding in the Activity Room have devoted their lives to the work. They built walls, installed dry wall and electricity, painted ,put up racks, etc. We are so fortunate to have such hard workers in this congregation who devote their time and energy to church work.

Stop and see the work going on in the Activity Room and the back parking lot. This certainly is a giving, growing church!

One Great Hour of Sharing

On March 9th we will receive an offering for One Great Hour of Sharing. This is a special mission of the UCC that carries God's message of love and hope to people in 138 countries. The UCC works with international partners to provide sources of clean water and food, education and health care, small business micro-credit, emergency relief, and advocacy and resettlement for refugees and displaced persons. OGHS supports domestic and international ministries for disaster preparedness and response.

News from our Conference Minister

On March 23rd we will be handing out Ziploc bags to assemble Gift of the Heart Hygiene Kits for Church World Service. Each bag will contain a list of supplies to be placed in the bag. If you would prefer t give a monetary donation, please make your check payable to CPUCC with CWS Hygiene kits on the memo line. We will be collecting monetary and kit donations thru April. CWS distributes these kits domestically and internationally to people that have been forced to leave their homes abruptly because of emergencies and they may not have time to pack the things they use on a daily basis like soap or toothbrushes. After a few days without these items, they definitely miss them. Your hygiene kits offer a refreshing daily boost for someone when supplies are hard to come by.

Dear Clergy of Penn Central Conference,
Last week I joined with other Conference Ministers and our General Minister and President Rev. Dr. Karen Georgia Thompson to hear from UCC national staff alongside leaders of Church World Service. Rev. Dr Thompson serves on the International Board of Church World Service and called us together to address the recent decisions from the federal government that affect the refugee ministries of Church World Service alongside our own.

By executive order (link is below), the federal government shut down all refugee resettlement activities. These are ministries in which Church World Service is deeply involved, alongside local churches. The executive order disrupted our churches' ability to continue their ministries to legal, vetted refugees who either are already in the United States or who were slated to fly into the US very soon. All flights have been cancelled and funding associated with refugee resettlement stopped. This action affects refugees from Congo, Afghanistan, Guatemala, Columbia, and Ukraine, which are the top five groups coming into Pennsylvania. In Lancaster County alone, Church World Service helped to resettle 900 refugees between 2018-2022.

These individuals are refugees and not migrants. They are not crossing the southern border. They work with established refugee resettlement organizations to come to the United States from places of war and conflict. While the United States Refugee Assistance Program may require review and revision, the timing and extent of this order has left hundreds of refugees in the limbo and separated from family.

The UCC national setting has a direct relationship with CWS and has a staff member who functions as a liaison between them. You may not be aware that the largest portion of the One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) offering goes to CWS for CROP Sustainable Development and for general operations. If you've been involved in a CROP Walk, you have been engaged with the work of Church World Service. CWS workers teach English, provide legal assistance, and help to find housing and employment for refugees.
Members of UCC churches across the nation have worked side-by-side with Church World Service for decades.

This is a time of great uncertainty. We hope that those who are poised to legally enter the United States to join family and escape war will soon be allowed back into the process. In the meantime, if your local church has a ministry in partnership with Church World Service, please lean in and engage more fully. Our General Minister and President shared these words with me today: "Advocacy will be needed to support the changes already initiated by the refugee ban and to ensure the safety of immigrant communities. Our congregations have supported CROP Walk and that will be important to do now more than ever. Participating as we are able in support, advocacy, giving and our prayers are tangible places where our energies and ministries can focus in the days ahead. As more opportunities become available these will be communicated. I am extremely grateful and proud of the on-going witness and commitment of UCC congregations."

Offer to volunteer, donate funds and needed items, or call the office closest to you and see how you might help. Pray for those refugees who have come into Pennsylvania and for those who are still waiting. You may also wish to visit some of the sites below for more information and for some materials for discussion.

In gratitude,

In 2024, the OGHS budget included $319,000 for CWS. This included: CROP Sustainable Development dollars, General support, and directed support to a variety of different programs of CWS. This does not include dollars directed to CWS outside of the OGHS budget or dollars that support Noel's position.

Recycling Paper

Why use recycled paper? From protecting forests to mitigating climate change, recycled paper use is essential for sustainability. Recycled paper use saves resources and reduces the paper industry's impact on the planet. Recycled paper production uses up to 40% less energy, 53% less water, produces 39% less solid waste, creates 35% less water pollution and 74 % less air pollution, and emits 40% fewer greenhouse gases than producing paper from 100% virgin fiber.

The good news is that paper is the most commonly recycled material--68.2% of paper waste was recovered in 2018; more paper is recovered for recycling than plastic, aluminum and glass combined. Moreover, paper can be recycled 5-7 times until it reaches its full lifespan. There are five basic paper grade categories, newspaper being a lower grade because it has already been recycled numerous times (fiber length shortens after each trip through the recycling process, resulting in a thinner and less durable paper). After paper is recycled numerous times, it must be mixed with virgin fibers to produce a partially recycled paper product.

Although paper can be recycled, municipalities may differ in what is acceptable for recycling. That said, some basic rules apply: (1) keep it clean; (2) keep it dry. Paper must not be contaminated with food waste or craft products such as paint, glue, glitter, crayons or excessive tape. Avoiding contamination is especially important if your municipality uses a 'single-stream' recycling system whereby aluminum, metal, paper, cardboard, plastic and glass are placed in one single bin. If your recycling becomes contaminated it goes to a landfill making your effort ineffective.

So the next time you purchase paper for your printer or for other purposes, as faithful stewards of God's creation, please consider how both purchasing recycled paper and recycling it after use can contribute to a more sustainable environment.

Member Profile - Sylvia Morra

Sylvia Morra realizes that her life was shaped by when and where she was born – that would be in rural northeastern Pennsylvania.
"One of the adjacent towns was founded in 1790. The name of one of our ancestor's was engraved on a monument in honor of the nine partners that undertook that venture," she said. "The monument was hidden away on the wooded mountainside behind our house. As kids, we made many a pilgrimage to that monument and once had a winter picnic there."

Sylvia's family belonged to the First Congregational Church of Harford, Pennsylvania. The church was founded in 1800. It still has pew boxes with doors and large clear paned windows extending from ceiling to wainscoting, allowing nature to surround those in attendance.
Her mother's mother was Unitarian/Universalist. Sylvia's father worked on the Christmas Tree Farm that took up much of the acreage in Susquehanna County. Love of nature has a long history in her family. "As I grew up and over the years, my mother and I had continuing conversations about the nature of God and the universe," she reminisced.

Sylvia began working as a reference librarian at Elizabethtown College in the late 80's. That's where she met her husband, Dan. "He was a grants-writer, and I was a librarian. He had questions and I had answers!" she said with a laugh.

The couple wed in the fall of 1990. They adopted their daughter, Sierra, in 1994 and their son, Jalen, in 1996. Dan stayed home with the kids, enriching their lives in so many different ways. Sierra works as an audio engineer at Pro Sounds in Harrisburg and Jalen is currently bartending in Louisville, Kentucky and getting certified as a drone operator. Jalen has a son, Kallum, who is 4 years old and attends Half-Day Play.

Sylvia found Colonial Park UCC in the early 1990's. She was drawn to the theology and the music during the service. Her love of words and liturgies led her to her favorite committee to serve on at the church. The Worship and the Arts Committee. "I love our brainstorming sessions; especially Deb Glorius' fertile imagination for adding sparks of inspiration to the service (butterfly cannons and silk fire flames)," she said.

She also co-teaches the library Sunday School class with Sharon Clark, where they have studied Adam Hamilton, Amy Jill Levine, and Marcus Borg to name a few. The teachings have helped her to learn so much from the material and from the struggles and shared experiences.

Personally, Sylvia is inspired by the writings and meditations of Franciscan monk, Richard Rohr, founder of the Center for Action and Contemplation. "I enjoy contemplating the Franciscan point of view. I was introduced to this writer by fellow pilgrims as I traveled to Iona, Scotland with Oasis Ministries and our own Pastor Cindy (before she became a pastor here!)," she said.

Sylvia enjoys her time with a knitting group at the Leader Center in Hershey and gets to play with her love of color and textures making hats for the homeless and for food bank patrons. She also knits and crochets prayer shawls for our congregation.

Anyone who attends Colonial Park UCC knows that they can count on a smile and warm welcome when they see Sylvia Morra. Her enthusiasm is infectious.

We hope you will join us for our upcoming Lenten season. Our Worship Team selected the series "Everything in Between" from A Sanctified Art (sanctifiedart.org):

This year, we're letting the Gospel of Luke guide us through Lent. As we studied these scriptures, we were struck by how Jesus' ministry disrupted the established social, political, and religious divides of his time. Jesus intentionally pointed out cultural and political extremes to emphasize the radical, inclusive, and surprising love of God. When we study these stories in their historical and cultural context, we see how they mirror the divisions many of us experience in our families, churches, and communities today.

Our theme, "Everything In Between," invites us to navigate the polarities in our lives with more faith, intention, and openness to be transformed. You will see that each weekly sub-theme explores two supposed binaries, like "faith & works" or "rest & growth," or "grief & hope." We often consider these ideas to be opposing. However, as we explore these concepts within the scriptures, we find nuance and complexity. We find that these dichotomies are false. We might begin to see a full spectrum instead of black and white. We might find that God is present in between. This Lent, we're trusting that God shows up in shades of gray, rainbow hues, and everywhere in between.

Lent/Easter Themes and Schedule:

Ash Wednesday—March 5—"Intention & Action" (Luke 9:51-62) – Service in Fellowship Hall. Once again Pastor Scott and Pastor Cindy will offer "ashes to go" out front of the church, 4:30p-6:30p.

First Sunday of Lent—March 9—"Stranger & Neighbor" (Luke 10:25-37) - Communion Sunday

Second Sunday of Lent—March 16—"Faith & Works" (Luke 10:38-42)

Third Sunday of Lent—March 23—"Rest & Growth" (Luke 13:6-9)

Fourth Sunday of Lent—March 30—"Lost & Found" (Luke 15:1-7)

Fifth Sunday of Lent—April 6—"Righteousness & Mercy" (Luke 19:1-10)

Palm Sunday—April 13— "Shouting & Silence" (Luke 19:29-40)

Maundy Thursday—April 17—"Power & Humility" (Luke 22:1-27)

Good Friday—April 18—"Acceptance & Resistance" (Luke 23:32-49)

Easter Sunday—April 20— "Grief & Hope" (Luke 24:1-12) - Communion Sunday

Great Discussions during Lent

Rather than have a mid-week Lenten gathering, Pastor Cindy will use the times normally slated for Spiritual Springboards (Tuesdays at 7p.m. on Zoom) and Bible Study (Thursdays at 2p.m.) to have further exploration of our Lenten theme.
Even if you might not normally participate in these times on a regular basis, consider joining use for the weeks of Lent.

Lenten Devotional

Beginning with Ash Wednesday and concluding on Easter Sunday, this devotional follows Jesus through Luke's Gospel. Each week offers commentary, poetry, visual art, hymns, and reflection prompts. We encourage you to walk through these weekly readings at your own pace throughout the season, following the rhythm that works best for you. The devotional features biblical commentary by our guest writers, Rev. Jeff Chu and and Dr. Mindy McGarrah Sharp, and art and reflections by our guest artist, Steve Prince.

Daily Devotional Cards

Beginning with Ash Wednesday and continuing through the first few days of Eastertide, we invite you to use these daily devotional cards to deepen your spiritual walk through Lent. You might place the stack of cards by your bed to read first thing in the morning or right before you sleep at night. Display the prayers that resonate with you the most. Perhaps use the questions as prompts to journal and reflect. Day by day, may these prayers remind you that God is by your side, through your doubt, your faith, and everything in between.

CHILDREN & YOUTH

J.A.M. (Jesus and Me): Toddlers to Kindergarten
Walkers through Kindergarten are welcome for stories, crafts, a snack, and lots of play time in the preschool room next to the Library. Preferred if a parent can stay with young children.

Crosswalkers
Our students in Grades 1-5 meet downstairs beside the Youth Room. They have a story time lesson, some arts & crafts, and a snack. We have several teachers dedicated to working with the class. For more information, please contact Jenny Gassert at 717-602-9065.

Pathfinders: Grades 6-12
Pastor Cindy leads our Pathfinders. We are using curriculum from the United Church of Christ called Faith Practices. Using distinctive practices of faith -- such as "Keeping Sabbath" or "Playing and Living Joyfully" -- Faith Practices is a set of versatile, all-encompassing resources designed to revolutionize the way congregations equip their members for lives of faith.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY GROUP (WSG)

WSG meets on the 2nd Monday of the month (with a few exceptions), in person in the church Parlor, 6:30pm—8:30pm. Find any handouts uploaded at https://tinyurl.com/CPUCChandouts

Following up on last year's theme of Practicing by Kathleen Escobar, this year, we will work through Christine Valters Paintner's The Soul's Slow Ripening: 12 Celtic Practices for Seeking the Sacred
March 10 - Chs. 8 & 9; April—No Gathering. Enjoy Holy Week! May 12 - Chs. 10 & 11; June 9 - Ch. 12 and Conclusion

ADULTS

All are welcome! Adult Sunday School is not divided by age or family group. Different classes have different styles and topics.

Library Class (discussion-oriented)
The Wired Word (January12-March 2)
Lessons are crafted from current news stories. News is inevitable--whether it be good or bad. What better way to extract hope from the news than by juxtaposing Bible verses as tools to ponder and navigate our daily walk in Christian faith.

Chapel Group (presentation-style, Bible Study)
Democracy is the law of the land in the US. Our founders rejected singular sovereign leadership as human monarchies tended toward authoritarian and oppression. We will explore the kingship that God authors and Jesus embodies.

Parlor Group (DVD and discussion)
Soul Keeping by John Ortberg:
When is the last time you thought about the state of your soul? Bestselling author John Ortberg guides you through practical steps to restoring your soul so you can finally experience a life of wholeness, balance, and hope.
In an age of materialism and consumerism where many people try to buy their way to happiness, many souls are starved and unhealthy, unsatisfied by false promises of status and wealth. We've neglected this eternal part of ourselves, focusing instead on the temporal concerns of the world--and not without consequence.
Ortberg presents this six session small group Bible study that will help you discover your soul--the most important connection to God there is--and find your way out of the spiritual shallow-lands to true divine

During the program year,
Sunday School for all ages is at 11:00am
